

Ensure compliant, secure, and cost-effective data management for M&A divestitures.

Identify information that is irrelevant to the transaction and exclude it from being migrated to the buying party while meeting contractual obligations. Control costs and accelerate timelines by analyzing data in place.

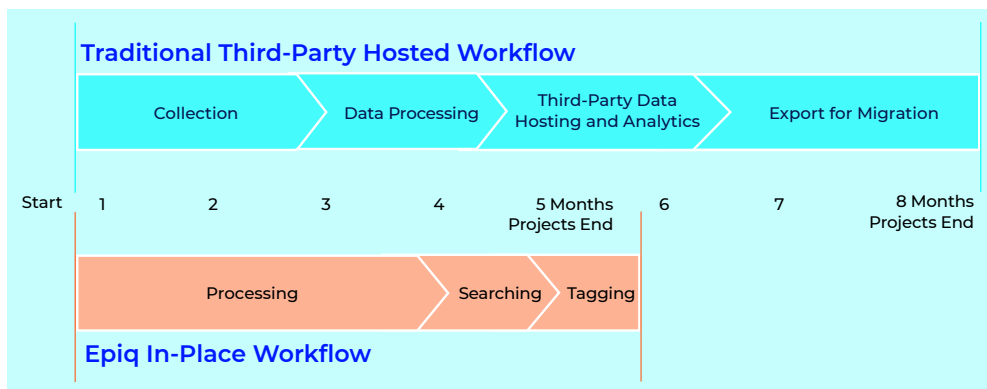

- Avoid risk associated with outside analysis by leveraging technology to identify data not subject to the purchase agreement.
- Protect confidential business information by identifying which data employees are allowed to access.
- Ensure users remain productive throughout the M&A process with careful migration planning and execution.
- Adhere to purchase agreements by providing the means to review identified data.
- Evaluate legal hold and record retention requirements to protect against future legal and compliance risks.
- Work within varying infrastructures, including cloud and on-premise data environments.
