

Amy Lewis

Associate Director

Amy Lewis is the associate director of legal noticing for Epiq and Epiq Legal Noticing. As a former paralegal and senior client services manager of corporate restructuring at Epiq, Amy's 25-plus years of experience are an asset for drafting class action legal notices and declarations, and for working with our clients.

Case Experience

As a senior client services manager of corporate restructuring and case manager, Amy was responsible for managing the drafting and execution of over 25,000 bankruptcy notice certificates of service, all filed in federal bankruptcy courts in the U.S.

In addition, Amy led a team of 22 people who efficiently managed legal noticing of over 50,000 documents, data management of millions of records, and provided exceptional client satisfaction of over 100 Chapter 11 cases including:

- Yellow Corporation
- WellPath Holdings, Inc.
- Tupperware Brands Corporation
- Sam Ash Music Corporation
- Lehman Brothers, Inc. (SIPA Proceeding)
- Cumulus Media, Inc.
- MF Global, Inc. (SIPA Proceeding)

Prior Experience

Prior to joining Epiq, Amy was a bankruptcy analyst with Wells Fargo Trumbull where she oversaw major Chapter 11 Bankruptcy cases, such as Kmart and Armstrong World Industries, and she coordinated legal noticing, managed high volumes of data, and developed strong working relationships with legal professionals.

Education

Amy holds a Bachelor of Arts in political science from Western Connecticut State University.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Hartford, Connecticut

P: +1 860 670 1423
alewis@epiqglobal.com

OUT OF CURIOSITY

Favorite period in history?

World War II.

Coffee or tea?

Coffee.

Snow or sand?

Sand.