

Packing List for Budapest

In October, Budapest typically experiences mild autumn weather, but it's best to pack layers due to potential temperature fluctuations. Expect cool days and potentially chilly evenings. A combination of warm and versatile clothing is recommended for exploring the city. Daytime dress code is casual and smart casual for dinners.

Clothing

- Comfortable walking shoes, boots, and/or sneakers
- Lightweight clothing for warm days
- Jackets or sweaters for cooler evenings
- Rain jacket and umbrella
- Scarf or shawl
- Swimsuit, swim caps, and flip flops (for thermal baths)

- Passport and travel documents
- Hungarian forints (cash)
- Reusable water bottle
- Day bag or backpack

Extras

- Sunscreen
- Sunglasses and hat
- Medication and prescriptions

Electronics

- Universal power adapter (Hungary uses type C/E plugs, 230V)
  - Camera (optional)
  - Portable power bank/charger
- Travel Essentials